

Men come and go ...

Now on DVD with optional endings: You Choose!

1) Men come and go, Genesis 2:7, 3:19, Psalm 90:3.

2) The “dead” dead or the “wicked” dead appear before the Great White Throne of God, Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8.

- The books of works are opened.
- The Book of life is opened.
- The wicked dead are thrown into the lake of fire.

NOTE: They are judged here but were already condemned while still on Earth.

- (John 3:18) Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

3) The ones who die but never really die go to the new Heaven and Earth that God has prepared, Revelation 21:1-7.

Do you believe this?

- (John 11:25-26) Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, 26 and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?”

• In Mandela's Way: Lessons on Life, Love, and Courage, his biographer, Richard Stengel, wrote this:

I once asked him [Nelson Mandela] about his mortality while we were out walking one morning in the Transkei, the remote area of South Africa where he was born. He looked around at the green and tranquil landscape and said something about how he would be joining his “ancestors.” “Men come and men go,” he later said. “I have come and I will go when my time comes.”
