

Outline for Galatians 5:1-15 ... How do we answer our call to freedom?

(1) We are to stand firm in the freedom to which Christ has set us free, 5:1a.

(2) We are to resist the human element of adding works to God's salvation, 5:1b-12.

(3) We are to use our freedom in Christ to fulfill God's purpose, not our own, 5:13-15.

Free indeed ...

- Freedom forever: For eternity; for all future time; for always; an endless time; without ever ending; eternally; for everlasting time.
- Freedom to infinity and beyond: Limitless, boundless, never-ending, impossible to measure or calculate; having no boundaries or limits; immeasurably great or large.
- Freedom from everything that constrains us on this Earth: In Christ we are free from our sin and everything that sin would touch and stain in our lives, including our emotions, our intellect, our spirituality, our relationships. We also will one day be free from the physical restraints of this life: our bodily limitations, sickness, general frailties that go along with being a human who was born to die while living on a planet that is under the judgment of God because of our rebellion.

So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

(John 8:36 ESV)
